

Draw & Color

Paul, Priscilla, and Aquila were tent-makers. What do you think their tents would have looked like? Color the tents below and then design your own tent in the empty space.

The Church at Corinth

Paul helped churches grow all over the world. One church was in a place called Corinth (KOHR-inth). Paul taught lots of people about Jesus and helped them understand Jesus' love. Some of his friends were Priscilla, Aquila, Titus Justus, and Crispus. They loved Jesus and worked to make the church strong.

It was hard to be a Christian in the beginning. Lots of people wanted to hurt Christians. They were afraid of Jesus' love and power.

It was hard to start a new church, too. Sometimes people didn't get along. They didn't agree about little details. They didn't always remember what Paul taught them. Paul wrote letters to help the people. He reminded them of what was important: Jesus' love.

Because of Jesus' love, the churches grew and grew.

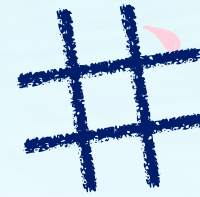

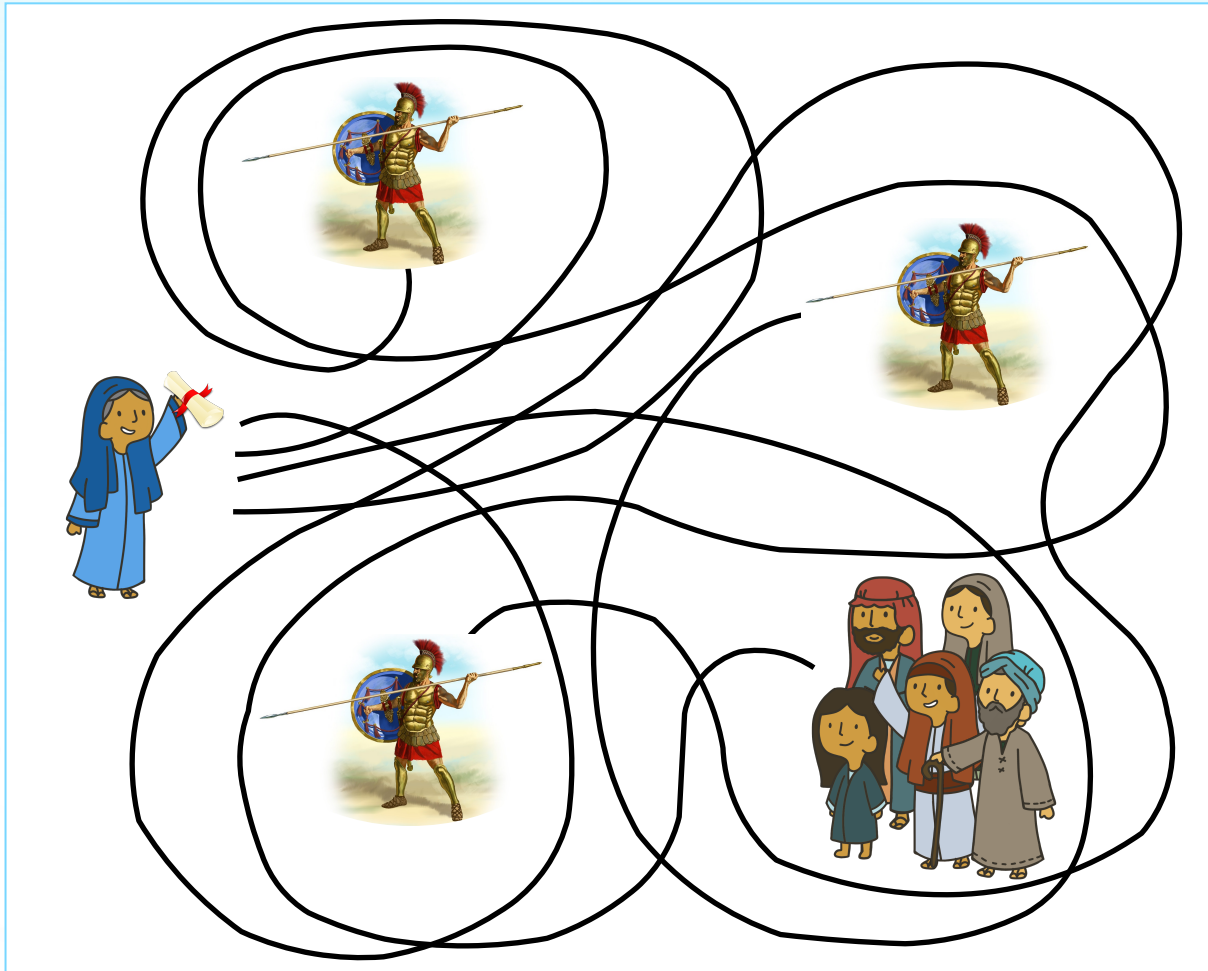

REMEMBER THIS

PERSECUTION

Harassing or punishing people you don't agree with. This happened a lot to the early Christians.

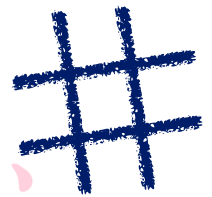

CARRYING THE MESSAGE

Help Phoebe carry Paul's letter to the people at the church in Corinth. Watch out for Roman soldiers who would arrest Christians and throw them in jail!

Did You Know?

Paul's friends carried his letters to the many churches he worked with. Some of their names were: Phoebe, Stephanus, Titus, and Tychicus. These letter carriers had an important—and dangerous—job!
