The Burned Scroll

Jeremiah wrote a letter to the king. The letter said: "God wants you and the people to follow God's rules. You need to take care of each other, just like God cares for you. If you don't change, terrible things will happen to the people. Please do better!"

When the king got the letter, he didn't care. He tore the letter up. He burned the pieces in a fire. He didn't believe Jeremiah's words. He didn't care what God wanted. He was the king and he would do whatever he liked.

So God had Jeremiah write a second letter. The letter told the king that bad things would happen to the people now. And they did. Everyone was very sad. Especially God.
